Welcome to 6th Grade Math! This year is going to be great!

Supplies: One 3 subject notebook, lined paper, pencils (preferably mechanical pencils), graph paper, 2 blue ink pens, highlighters, 1 3-prong folder with pockets. If you are unable to provide these supplies, please email me or have your student let me know. I will do what I can to accommodate.

Grading Information

Minor Assignments: Classwork, Homework, Planner & Participation 25%

Intermediate Assignments: Quizzes & Simple Projects: 35%

Major Assignments: Tests & Complex Projects: 40% (Semester exams are averaged separately.)

Classroom Rules

1. Enter the room silently.
2. Turn cell phone off and put it away - out of sight.
3. Fill in your planner and prepare for class.
4. When an adult or student is addressing the class, you are expected to listen.
5. Treat others how you would like to be treated.
6. Ask for permission to leave your seat or borrow supplies from the teacher/classmates.
7. Remain in your assigned seat until you are dismissed by the teacher.

Consequences

If a student chooses to violate the rules or class procedures, the following are some of the consequences the student may face. The severity of the infraction and/or the frequency will determine which consequence will be enforced.

1. Verbal warning
2. Seat reassignment
3. Teacher/Student Conference
4. Writing/Discipline Assignment
5. Parent Contact
6. Teacher referral with parent signature
7. Referral to the Dean

Daily Expectations

1. Arrive to class before the tardy bell.
2. Fill in your planner with daily assignments and homework.
3. Follow directions and class procedures, including completing assignments and homework.
4. Be respectful of others including their personal space and property.
5. Raise your hand and wait to be acknowledged during class discussions.
6. Ask permission before leaving your assigned seat.
- 7. ALWAYS write the problem and show your work.
8. Homework will be given at least 4 times a week.

Absentee Procedures

1. When you return to school fill in your planner for the days you missed. Check the missed assignment folder to see what needs to be made up.
2. Schedule a time with the teacher to make up tests/quizzes.
3. Turn in all missed work in accordance with the schools policy.
